From Takayasu Elementary and Junior High School to the World

Development of global talent to expand students' possibilities

Enhancement of English education

- Acquisition of practical English communication skills with the help of a native-speaking Assistant Language Teacher (ALT)
- Improvement of English skills through AI learning apps and systematic instruction
- A proven track record of winning Eiken's Group Excellence Award

Enhancement of self-study support

- Support to help students acquire certification (the Eiken [English proficiency] and Kanken [kanji aptitude] exams) by utilizing their strengths
- Study support provided by private businesses

Community-based "Takayasu Study"

- Activities in the biotope (the courtyard of the former Takayasu Junior High School)
- Learning about Kawachi cotton

◆ A revision has been made to the means of transportation to school that used to require parents/guardians to drop off and pick up their children. ◆

- Up until now, the elementary schools have asked parents/guardians to take their children to and from the school district. However, a revision has been made to allow students in the fifth grade and above to commute to school alone at the discretion of their parents/guardians.
- Students in the fifth grade and above may be allowed to commute to school by bicycle.

◆ Things to consider when selecting a school ◆

- Depending on future enrollment conditions, the system may be revised or new enrollment may be suspended.
- When selecting a school, please be aware of the purpose of the system and discuss it carefully with your child from the perspective of respecting human rights without discrimination or prejudice.
