

Overview of Kitayamamoto Elementary School

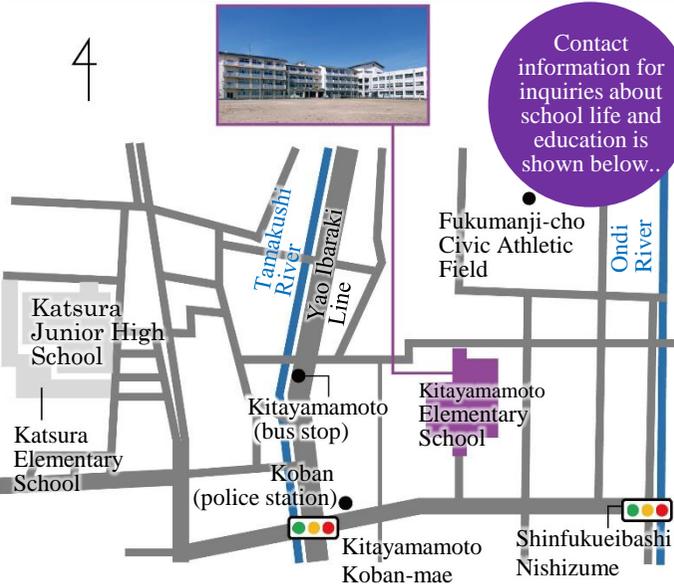

Since its opening in 1956, the school, together with the local community, has been committed to the principle of respect for human rights as the foundation of all its educational activities.

The school also carries out hands-on activities with an emphasis on multicultural understanding to foster the ability to thrive in a globalized society.

In the future, while further developing the human rights and career education accumulated in the junior high school district, Kitayamamoto Elementary School, as a small-scale special school, will carry out distinctive educational activities, including school subject teaching and student support by experts, enhancement of after-school activities, and promotion of multicultural understanding education.
